This week's FNB Community Spotlight 📌 shines on Park View Community Mission's "Food For Thought" campaign, Park View Executive Director Todd Blake, "Food For Thought" Director Barb Chase and our SVP, Chief Operating Officer Allison Daniels.

Park View Community Mission is a local non-profit organization that gives back by providing clothes and food to those in need while also working to provide community members with valuable resources and life skills. 🍌

Their "Food For Thought" campaign focuses on food scarcity issues in our youth population. They work with local schools and community centers, providing nutritional meals to ensure young people eat over weekends, summer breaks and other critical times throughout the year.

💙 The Park View Community Mission staff is eager to give tours of their facilities to all interested; they understand the magnitude of what they do every week is a "must see to believe"!

In support of this extraordinary effort, our COO, Allison Daniels, was proud to present the organization with a $5,000 check to support the students of Robert S. Payne Elementary School in Lynchburg.

Along with this donation, Allison serves on the Board of Directors at Park View and gives her time by regularly teaching financial literacy courses! 💰

First National Bank encourages other local businesses to give their resources of money, time and talents to this wonderful organization! 💙

Help. Healing. Hope.

The Clothing Connection

Urgent Need: Men's & Children's Clothing

We are collecting Men's + Children's clothing

We have seen exponential growth in the number of men needing clothing assistance, as well as families with children. As we seek to expand our reach to meet these growing needs, we are calling upon you to be a helping hand to your neighbors through clothing the needy.

The Clothing Connection is collecting men's and children's spring and summer clothing items that are in good condition. A helpful question to determine it's quality is, "Would I give this item to a close friend?"

For Questions, contact Kris Marcinick & Andrew Lenehan at TCC@ParkViewMission.org

Thank you!

Recently, our team participated in National Get to Know Your Customers Day! From questionnaires to raffles, we enjoyed getting to better know the clients who put their trust in us to be an extraordinary service provider. 🙌

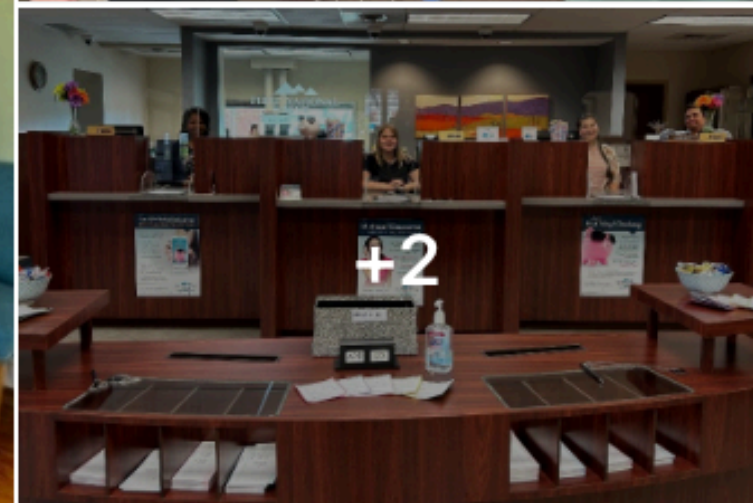

At First National Bank, our clients are more than just a banking relationship; they are members of the community we are honored to serve. ❤️

We look forward to serving your banking needs as well, no matter how big or small they may be! 👍

As you begin your morning routine, do you see any gently used men's or children's summer clothing that could be donated? 🙄

Across our footprint, we are collecting these items for Park View Community Mission! 📌

Until May 26, we will have a donation box like the one pictured inside each FNB location. Please help us help others in the community! ❤️

First National Bank congratulates Leah Andrews, a Senior at Altavista Combined School, for receiving an Honorable Mention Award in the 2023 Virginia Bankers Association Bank Day Scholarship Program!

She was presented with a certificate of her achievement from Andria Smith, AVP & Branch Manager of our Altavista Main Office.

Leah attended Bank Day with us in March and wrote an essay that was judged against other students in the Central/Southside Region of Virginia.

With this award, she will receive $1,000 in scholarship money for the next step in her educational journey!

Today's FNB Community Spotlight shines on Park View Community Mission's "The Clothing Connection" campaign.

With the help of FNB Nation, we were able to donate an estimated 750 pounds of clothing to this great effort!

First National would like to thank all who donated and gave their items!

Today's FNB Community Spotlight 📍 shines on Camp Holiday Trails, a Camp in Charlottesville that has served children with medical needs since 1974. ❤️

In support of their outstanding efforts, our Ivy Road Branch Manager, Darryl Gibson and Commercial Loan Officer, Marcus Stamp, were able to stop by and make a donation of popsicles for the campers to enjoy during their upcoming Camp Olympics Event! 🍷
