Over the month of December, we held an internal food drive organized by Cheria Taylor, Senior Relationship Banker, for the benefit of DAWN (Donation a Week Neighbor)! ❤️

We extend a huge shoutout to Cheria for being a great representative of FNBNation and for bringing this effort together to support a worthy cause.

This year, we're excited to once again sponsor Brosville Elementary School's Virginia Reads One Book program, in partnership with Read to Them and the Virginia Bankers Association!

To celebrate, we attended the program's opening assembly and had the fun opportunity to read the first chapter of this year's book, Charlotte's Web, to students.

Reading on behalf of the Bank were Connor Hudson (pictured in photo one), Tracey Houchins (not pictured), and Angel Lewis (not pictured).

Our team also enjoyed sharing the story in both Spanish and English, collaborating with banks across the Commonwealth to record chapters toward the book's full completion.

Lorena Villares (photo two) and Josie Santiago Cruz (photo three) each recorded a chapter in Spanish, while Kurt Martin (photo four) recorded a chapter in English!

Last week, First National Bank hosted "Bank Day" in partnership with the Virginia Bankers Association!

We had the pleasure of hosting seniors from Dan River, EC Glass, LCA, Jefferson Forest, Rustburg, and Altavista, who learned about managing their financial futures and how First National supports our community.

Each student will use this information to write an essay that will be judged against other students across the state for a chance to win up to $8,000 in scholarship money! First National is also proud to award two of these students $500 scholarships based on the judging of their essays by a panel of our employees.

We would like to thank Asia Brady, Landen Mays, Janet Whitehead, Sherease Booker, Bryan Lemley, Jim Minear, Tracie Gallahan, and local entrepreneur Brit Campbell for presenting during the event.

We also extend our gratitude to the VBA for the partnership in this effort and to Mellow Mushroom for a great lunch!
